2. The PI is responsible for ensuring that the fixation of salary is as per the guidelines of the funding agency. ICSR Office will assist the PI to ensure the availability of sufficient funds in the manpower head of the project while appointing the project staff.

RETAINER CONSULTANCY (Faculty)

There are consultancy assignments in which the client seeks the technical advice of the faculty. This may be carried out either at the Institute or at the premises of the client, and no Institute facility is utilized. The following are the special features of this type of consultancy.

- The consultancy charges are worked out on a man-day basis. The IC & SR board recommends the following guideline rates:
  - Professor: Rs 25,000/- per man-day plus service tax.
  - Associate Professor: Rs 20,000/- per man-day plus service tax.
  - Assistant Professor: Rs 15,000/- per man-day plus service tax.
- The number of days required for consultancy must be mutually decided by the consultant and the client.

- Honorarium is payable only to the consultant and supporting staff (if any). No other expenditure is permissible in these projects. If more than one faculty member is involved in consultancy, honorarium is payable to all faculty members undertaking the consultancy based on a mutually agreed term, which has to be documented and endorsed prior to the commencement of the project.
- Matters regarding the distribution of consultancy amount have been dealt in distribution and closure of consultancy.
- The client shall meet all the travel, boarding and incidental expenses of travels undertaken for the project work.
